

Table of contents

1.	INTRODUCTION .....	5
1.1.	Setting the Context for the research activity .....	5
1.2.	Tax power´s allocation and legal authority to control the internal market. A factual precognition to be considered .....	7
1.3.	Legal concepts and legal terms .....	9
2.	EU STATE AIDS RULES AND ENERGY TAXATION .....	9
2.1.	Definition and notification requirement of State aids in the field of energy taxation .....	10
2.2.	The Court of Justice of the European Union´s criteria .....	11
2.3.	Some landmark cases on energy taxes .....	14
3.	THE WORD TRADE ORGANIZATION´s RULES ON SUBSIDIES.....	17
3.1.	Dispute settlement under the WTO .....	17
3.2.	Comparing WTO´s and EU´s rules on aids and subsidies .....	18
4.	THE UNITED STATES COMMERCE CLAUSE AND STATE ENERGY TAX EXPENDITURES .....	19
4.1	The Federal Constitution's Dormant Commerce Clause .....	19
4.2.	The Dormant Commerce Clause and State Taxes .....	20
4.3.	The Dormant Commerce Clause and State Tax Expenditures .....	21
4.4.	Implications for State Energy Tax Expenditures.....	24
4.5.	Federal Statutory Preemption of State Tax Measures .....	26
4.6.	Conclusion .....	26
5.	THE MERCOSUR AND BRAZIL PERSPECTIVE.....	27
5.1.	Tax incentives in Mercosur and Brazil: general characteristics and distinctions .....	27
5.2.	Tax incentives on environmental matter.....	29
5.3.	Final considerations.....	31
6.	THE CHINA PRACTICE AND EXPERIENCE.....	31
6.1.	The Constitutional design of state powers and the making of tax law and policy .....	32
6.2.	Tax incentives and the protection of the environment.....	35
7.	CONCLUSIONS .....	36