

Summary

1. The setup of the European External Action Service Inexplicable by grand theories of European integration?

NIKLAS HELWIG AND SIMON STROB

1. Introduction	9
2. Theoretical framework	10
2.1. A neofunctionalist perspective on the EEAS	10
2.2. An intergovernmentalist perspective on the EEAS.....	11
3. The institutional structure of the EEAS	13
3.1. The internal setup	13
3.2. The external setup.....	16
4. Conclusion	18
5. References	20

2. The evolving features of the EU as a security agency of collective action in Europe and beyond

CSABA TÖRÖ

1. The elastic contours of regional security formations	23
2. The European Union as regional security agency?	23
3. Differentiating capacities: the function of the EU as regional security agency in contrast with the other regional structures.....	24
4. The defining purposes of the EU in its international security undertakings.....	26
5. The place and role of the EU as a regional agency in the fabric of collective security.....	27
6. Possible modalities of EU operations in support of the UN	28
7. The conceivable range of EU tasks in crisis management	29
8. EU crisis management undertakings as missions of variable coalitions	30
9. The function of the EU as a security agency for crisis management missions.....	30

3. The EU's response to the financial crisis –A mid– term review

KAREL LANNOO

1. The 'de Larosiere' institutions.....	33
2. The G-20 follow-up and single financial market completion	36
3. Financial stability matters of the sovereign crises in the euro-zone	39
4. Conclusion	40
5. References and bibliography	41

4. World Economic Crisis and its Impacts on Turkish Economy

BAHRI YILMAZ

1. Introduction	45
2. Global World Recession: Storm and strong Turbulences.....	45
2.1. Main Challenges to World Economy in spring 2009.....	46
3. Economic Development of Turkey (2001-2007): An impressive economic recovery but the economy still remains vulnerable to external and domestic turbulences	48
4. Effects of the Global Financial Crisis World Recession on the Turkish Economy (2008-2009).....	49
4.1. Macroeconomic Stability	49
4.1.1. Economic Growth	49
4.1.2. Balance of Payments.....	51
4.1.3. Inflation Rate.....	53
4.1.4. Public Finance	54
4.1.5. Employment/Unemployment	55
4.1.6. Income distribution.....	55
4.1.7. Assessment	57
5. The Challenges to the Turkish Economy	58
6. Conclusion	61

5. The EU's Foreign Policy Towards its Southern Neighborhood: From a Pro-Active to a Defense Position towards its Southern Border?

ASTRID B. BOENING

1. Introduction.....	63
2. The European External Action Service: Diplomacy and Hard Power in the Mediterranean.....	65
3. Hard Power in the Mediterranean?	66
4. Avalanching Instability during the MENA's Democratic Transitions in the Greater Context of Emerging Intra and Interregional Hegemons	67
4.1. Select "Intra-Regional" Players of Interest	67
4.2. Select Extra-Regional ("Distant") Players of Influence in the Euro-Med.....	70
5. Conclusion: The EU as a Global Player Among the Shifting Balance of Power in the Euro-Mediterranean Intra- and Interregionally	71
6. Bibliography	74

6. La Asociación Euromediterránea. Un modelo de integración regional –abierto, híbrido y asimétrico–

PALOMA GONZÁLEZ DEL MIÑO

1. Introducción	77
2. La mutación de la política comunitaria en el Mediterráneo.....	78
3. La respuesta estratégica para el Mediterráneo: de Barcelona (1995) a Paris (2008).....	79
4. La lógica del modelo relacional.....	80
5. La complejidad del escenario sur mediterráneo	81
6. La Asociación Euromediterránea como referente	82
7. Objetivos ambiciosos de difícil implementación	83
8. Conclusiones	85

9. Bibliografía	87
7. Europe and the USA: Diagnosis of the Trans-Atlantic Relationship in the Twenty First Century
LEOCADIA DÍAZ ROMERO
1. Introduction. Prospects for the EU and the US in the Post-Cold War Scenario	89
2. The Partnership between Europe and the USA.....	90
2.1. Origins and Grounds of the Relationship.....	90
2.2. The Transatlantic Agenda	90
2.3. The Institutional Framework.....	92
3. The Basis for a Strong Partnership: The EU as a Global Actor. The Cooperative Model with NATO.....	94
3.1. The EU as a Global Actor. An Active, Capable EU	94
3.1.1. Preliminary Remarks	94
3.1.2. The Complexity of External Relations in the European Union	95
3.2. The Cooperative Formula with NATO	98
3.3. Barack Obama's influence on World Politics	99
4. Concluding Remarks. A Shared Destiny for the XXIst Century	100
8. Discurso final del Ex-Secretario de Estado de Asuntos Exteriores e Iberoamericanos
JUAN ANTONIO YAÑEZ-BARBUENO	