

Summary

Introduction.....	13
1. The Specific Outlook of Legal Theory	13
2. The Origin of the Law	14
3. Forms of Human Sociability: Family, Social and Political Life.....	15
Text Reading, Introduction	17
Questions	21
1. Persons, Things and Actions.....	23
1. Persona/Persons	23
2. Res/Things	24
3. Actio/Actions	25
Text Reading num. 1, Lesson 1	27
Questions	31
2. The Legal Experience	33
1. Rights and Human Life	33
2. Etymologies and the Nominal Definition of Ius, Right and Law	33
3. The Radical link Between Ius (Right) and Iustitia (Justice)	35
4. The Analogy According to the Right.....	36
5. The Right and its Rule	37
Text Reading num. 1, Lesson 2	38
Questions	42
Text Reading num. 2, Lesson 2	43
Questions	44
3. The Specific Content of the Right	45
1. The Right is the Equal Thing.....	45
2. Equality as Source of Rights.....	46
3. The Right as «What is Due to Someone».....	46
4. The Distinction Between Moral and Legal/Juridical Obligations	47
5. Right, Penalty and Coactions	49
Text Reading num. 1, Lesson 3	50

Questions	53
Text Reading num. 2, Lesson 3	54
Questions	57
4. The Natural Right	59
1. Natural Right and History	59
2. Natural and Positive Right	60
3. Political Importance Of Natural Right	61
4. Positivist Denial of Natural Right	61
5. Natural Reason	62
6. Ius Gentium	62
Text Reading num. 1, Lesson 4	64
Questions	68
Text Reading num. 2, Lesson 4	69
Questions	72
5. On Justice	73
1. On the Idea of Justice	73
2. On Virtues in General	74
3. Types of Justice.....	75
4. The Injustice.....	76
5. Law and Justice are Still Insufficient	76
Text Reading num. 1, Lesson 5	78
Questions	79
Text Reading num. 3, Lesson 5	80
Questions	82
6. Human Rights.....	83
1. Origin of the Idea of Subjective Right	83
2. Consequences of the Subjectivation of Rights.....	84
3. Concept and Structure of Human Rights	85
4. Historical Origin of Human Rights.....	85
5. Human Rights seen Through Classical Tradition.....	86
6. Human Rights and the Teaching of Catholic Church	87
Text Reading num. 1, Lesson 6	88
Questions	90
Text Reading num. 2, Lesson 6	91
Questions	93

7. The Legal Norm	95
1. Origin of Norms: Speculative and Practical Reason	95
2. Prudence as Guide to Action	96
3. Reason and Will in the Norm	97
4. Commandments and Norms.....	98
5. The Legal Norms.....	99
6. The Legal System	99
Text Reading num. 1, Lesson 7	101
Questions	103
Text Reading num. 2, Lesson 7	104
Questions	106
8. On Human Law.....	107
1. Analogical Definition of Law and Essential Notes of the Law.....	107
2. The Lex Non-Scripta	109
3. What Does the Law Need In Order to be Fair?	110
4. Consequences of Just or Unjust Laws	111
Text Reading num. 1, Lesson 8	112
Questions	114
Text Reading num. 3, Lesson 8	115
Questions	117
Text Reading num. 4, Lesson 8	118
Questions	121
Text Reading num. 5, Lesson 8	122
Questions	124
9. The Natural Law	125
1. Natural Tendencies of Man.....	125
2. Natural Law and Eternal Law	126
3. Natural Law and Human Conscience	126
4. The Natural Law Has, in its Own Way, its Particular Sanction	127
5. Natural Law and Positive Law	127
Text Reading num. 1, Lesson 9	129
Questions	131
Text Reading num. 2, Lesson 9	132
Questions	133
Text Reading num. 3, Lesson 9	134
Questions	137

10. The Legal Science	139
1. Jurisprudence	139
2. Jurisprudence: Should it be Considered as Science?	140
Text Reading num. 1, Lesson 10	143
Questions	145
11. The Interpretation and the Application of Law	147
1. Interpretation and Application of the Law to a Particular Case	147
2. Legal Reasoning	148
3. Equity and Waive or Dispensation	149
Text Reading num. 1, Lesson 11	151
Questions	152
Text Reading num. 2, Lesson 11	153
Questions	154
12. Jurist vs. Legal Practitioner?	155
1. An Overview on the Legal Practice	155
2. The Bench	156
3. The Bar	157
Text Reading num. 1, Lesson 12	159
Questions	168
Text Reading num. 2, Lesson 12	169
Questions	178
Bibliography	179