

Index

Executive Summary	7
CHAPTER 1: Introduction
1.1. Civil society and development	9
1.2. Civil society organizations: Demand for good government.....	10
1.3. Civil society in Uganda and its NGO legislation	10
CHAPTER 2: The CSCBP Program
2.1. Introduction.....	15
2.2. Civil society engagement strategy	16
2.3. Capacity Building strategy	17
2.3.1. Participatory grant implementation and performance monitoring
2.3.2. Methodology: Organizational Capacity Assessment Tool (OCAT)
2.3.3. The role of the intermediary organisations
2.3.4. Other capacity building activities
2.4. Collaborations with public and private sector	24
CHAPTER 3: CSCBP Results, Outcomes and Impacts
3.1. Positive impact	27
3.2. Outcomes of grants and grantee capacity building	28
3.2.1. Institutional Development
3.2.2. Empowerment
3.2.3. Advocacy
3.2.4. Service Delivery
3.3. Outcomes of cross sectoral interventions.....	30
3.3.1. Institutional Development
3.3.2. Empowerment
3.3.3. Advocacy
3.3.4. Service Delivery
3.3.5. Regulatory system
3.3.6. In conclusion
3.4. Grant management results.....	32
3.5. OCA 1 and OCA 2: a comparative analysis.....	32
3.5.1. Governance performance results
3.5.2. Service delivery results
3.5.3. Financial management results
3.5.4. Overall performance

CHAPTER 4: Reflexions

4.1. What worked and what didn't.	35
4.2. Has civil society benefited from the Programme?	35
4.3. Grants Management: Partnership or power broking?	36
4.4. Did grantees fulfill their proposed objectives?	37
4.5. Conditions for efficient and effective grant management.....	39
4.6. Sustainability of the capacity building interventions.....	40

CHAPTER 5: Lessons Learned and Conclusions

5.1. Introduction.....	42
5.2. Lessons at the CSCBP micro level	43
5.3. Lessons at the CSCBP meso level	44
5.4. Conclusions.....	46
5.5. A final word	47